

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

VOL. 5--NO. 9.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1885.

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE MUSIC BEGINS

ON THE TUNE OF

Low Prices.

J. W. Sparks & Bro.

Put on sale their entire stock of Ladies', Misses', and Children's Cloaks, Russian Circumbers and Newmarkets at about half the former prices. An early call secures best bargains.

BLANKETS.

BIG Bargains in Blankets!
Grey Blankets at 75, 90, $1.00
and $1.25 per pair. WHITE
Blankets at $25, 15, 20, 2.00, 2.50, 3.00, 3.50 and 4.50 a pair.

UNDERWEAR.

Men's White Merino Shirts at 25, 35, 40, 45 and 50 cents each, Men's Scarlet Wool Shirts and Drawers at 50, 65, 75, 90 and $1.00 each; splendid value, Ladies' Merino Vests at 40, 45 and 50 cents each. One thousand yards Canton Flannels at 5, 8, 9 and 10 cents per yard.

NEW STOCK of HOSIERY

Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Mufflers, Jerseys, Caps, Hoods and Nubias now opening at Lower Prices than the Lowest.

J. W. SPARKS & BRO.

Market Street, Below Second,

AT THE

PAINT

STORE

— is a fine stock of —

WALL PAPER,

CEILING DECORATIONS, and everything in the Paint Line.
ALBASTINE is the best Coating for walls and ceilings, it will not yellow or fade, and is better than Kalsomine or Whitewash. Anyone can put it on.

ALBERT GREENWOOD, No. 2 Zweigart's Block.

S. J. DAUGHERTY,
Designer and dealer in —

MONUMENTS, TABLETS,

Headstones &c. The largest stock of the best material and work ever offered in this section of the state, at reduced prices. Granite and Marble are prepared to cut and see for themselves. Second street, Maysville.

LANE & WORTHICK.

Contractors.

ARCHITECTS and BUILDERS

Plans and specifications furnished on reasonable terms and all work satisfactorily and promptly done. On Third street, between Wall and Sutton.

WALL & WORTHINGTON,

[GARRETT S. WALL,
E. L. WORTHINGTON]

Attorneys and Counselors at Law,

Will practice in all courts in Mason and adjoining counties and in the Superior Court and Court of Appeals. All collections given prompt attention.

JACOB LINN,

BAKER AND CONFECTIONER,

ICE CREAM and SODA WATER a specialty. Fresh Bread and Cakes, Partie and Weddings furnished on short notice. No 35 Second street, Maysville.

422

SMITH'S KIDNEY TONIC—TRY IT.

"I AM FREE AT LAST."

ALL THAT WAS MORTAL OF THOMAS A. HENDRICKS IS LAID TO REST.

The Simple but Impressive Rites Over the Remains of the Late Vice President.
Somber Elegance — Beautiful Flowers — Masses of People.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 2.—The business of the city was entirely suspended. There was a tremendous concourse of people from all parts of the nation to witness the simple rites which precede the interment of the mortal remains of Thomas A. Hendricks, vice president of the United States. The heavy fog still hung over the city when day dawned, but lifted and became less penetrative as the hours were on.

The clergy of the city, without respect to sect, joined in the obsequies, the bells of the churches tolled a requiem, and the presence of the populace in the church which followed his funeral car, or stood silent spectators of the solemn spectacle attested their fealty to his memory.

Trains arrived during the early hours of the day at the different railway stations bringing delegations from the national capital and all the leading cities of the Union, together with an infinity of persons from the country, as well as from the foreign cities of Europe and America.

The cabinet members included Secretary of State Bayard, Secretary Lamar, Secretary Whitney, Secretary Elliott and Postmaster General Vilas. The United States supreme bench was represented by Associate Justices Matthews and Blatchford. The Senate of the United States was represented by senators Edmunds, Allison, Pugh, Harris, Conger, Blair, Dugay, Vest, Beck, Cauden, Vance, Jones, Voorhees, Payne, Palmer, and others.

Other delegations representing the house were composed of W. R. Morrison, J. Blunt, H. A. Herbert, W. S. Hainen, W. M. Springer, W. P. Hepburn, S. B. Ward, W. W. Phelps, J. J. Kiernan, Thomas Ryan and F. Dunn. The number of active and ex-members of the lower house, present in addition to those named was large.

The governors of Indiana, Ohio, Illinois and Kentucky were present, attended by their staffs and numerous state officers. The chief representative of the United States army present was Major Gen. Schofield, and the Adjutant General, and distinguished guests. The officers and other official delegates were met on the arrival by local sun-committees, and furnished with tickets of admission to St. Paul's Episcopal cathedral, to be present at church services and assigned positions in the funeral column.

The train arrivals swelled the multitude of persons who had gathered to witness the progress on all sides of the great funeral.

Washington street presented a blanched mass of humanity hours before the services were entered upon at St. Paul's and long before the passage of the casket, the majority of the business blocks were filled with occupants.

The eye rested upon a vast multitude which occupied apparently every available point along the thoroughfare. The semblance of a solid wall began to appear in public and private buildings, to be topped with rows of portraits upon the ledges.

Legends are very few; one business man on Washington street has the words, "I am free at last," the last words of the dead vice president, written to that effect.

The eyes distinguished by its composition in black cloth and the fact that it was incomplete.

Thirteen pews to right of the central aisle were occupied by the members of the various delegations and members of local committees, and pews in the front to the left. The pew occupied by the dead vice president in his lifetime was the fourth from the front to the left to the middle aisle when facing the altar.

The casket was distinguished by its composition in black cloth and the fact that it was incomplete.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

Thirteen pews to right of the central aisle were occupied by the members of the various delegations and members of local committees, and pews in the front to the left.

The casket was distinguished by its composition in black cloth and the fact that it was incomplete.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins recited from the letters, delivered to him the cause of the writer, bearing the name of Mr. Morgan, followed by the other relatives, all in deep mourning.

When the casket had been placed in front of the chancel rail the choir sang the anthem, "Lord, I know My Redeemer cometh for me," and the dead was laid in the casket.

This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Lead Heavenly Light" by the choir, the audience joining. Rev. Dr. Jenkins

THE EVENING BULLETIN

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1886.

ABOUT $11,000,000 were paid out by the Government last week for pensions.

The gross receipts of the postal service for the fiscal year ending June 30, are placed at $42,560,444, the expenditures at $49,602,188, leaving a deficiency of $7,041,344.

GEOGRAPHICAL ROLL CALL. GEORGE RANDALL was killed near Kelso, Kansas, last week by some unknown party. Randall was a Kentuckian, but from what section of the State is not known.

From the first of October to the 26th of November the Richmond Register says there were shipped from Madison County 160 car-loads of live stock that brought into the county $300,000.

This early bird catches the bronchitis, and loves of early morning walks will find this a true maxim. If we were permitted to make a suggestion, we should whisper: "Use Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup."

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND, acting upon the earnest advice of leading Democrats and Republicans, decided to remain at Washington, and did not attend Vice-President Hendrick's obsequies at Indianapolis yesterday.

SERIOUS trouble is anticipated from striking coal miners at Pittsburg. Rendered desperate by suffering, they say they are determined to win the strike if every coal pit on the Monongahela river has to be burned.

MINISTERS and magistrates are doing a lively business in the matrimonial line at Louisville. There seems to be a regular epidemic broken out among the young folks down there, as forty-six marriage licenses were issued by the County Clerk of Jefferson County last week.

The new anaesthetic, cocaine, is a dangerous drug and needs to be used with care, and under the advice of a practiced physician, if used at all. A prominent physician of Chicago has been rendered insane by the use of the drug. He has been experimenting with the drug on himself and family for some time, and the health of his wife and unfortunate children has been destroyed too by the experiments.

Of all the distinguished Republicans spoken of as candidates for the Presidency of Senate, none are better fitted for place than Senator Edmunds. He has had an experience in the chair, and has never allowed himself to be blinded with passion and prejudice. Unlike Sherman and Logan, he believes the war is over, and has not tried to revive the bitter memories of former days. In addition to this he is in sympathy with the reform measures inaugurated by President Cleveland.

THE CONVENTION AT HAZEL GREEN, Wolfe County, last week, re-nominated Hon. John E. Cooper for Circuit Judge of that district, and chose L. M. Day, of Wolfe County, as the candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney. Day is said to be more of a farmer than a lawyer, his practice having been confined almost entirely to the Magistrate's courts. It is claimed that he is not qualified for the place. There is bitter and unconcealed hostility to his candidacy among the leading Democrats of Owingsville, the home of Hon. B. D. Lacy, one of the defeated candidates.

THE WASHINGTON correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette gave a just and worthy tribute to one of Kentucky's sons, in the following: "Mr. Carlisle is one of the brainiest and most popular men connected with public affairs in Washington. His counsels are valued at the White House and through all the departments. He is regarded as a careful, safe and prudent adviser, who never loses his head, never colors his views from a personal standpoint—just such a man as the times demand for the position he holds. It is a high compliment to the fairness and ability with which he has exercised his office that human jealousy has not yet been able to develop in any quarter the slightest opposition."

THE PHILADELPHIA North American, an ancient enemy of the Democratic party, is frank enough to say that "It has recognized the vote by which the Republicans were retired from power last year as a demand for change by the people themselves. The Democratic party is now fully responsible for the conduct of public business. It must be free to select its agents. Theorizing in a chimney corner and actually administering the affairs of men that fifty millions are different affairs. It is morally certain that the administrative officers throughout the vast system of civil service will be Democrats at no distant day. That is expected. It is the fortune of war. But if it proves in the end that public business has not suffered by the change, the masses will not stop to discuss the ethics of partisan rule."

JOHN F. KIRKINS DEAD.

A Famous Ex-Confederate, Upon Whose Head There Was a Prize.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 2.—John Kirkins, of Louisville, Kentucky, ex-Confederate, died at the Union hotel. He was born in Natchez, Miss., and graduated from Yale college in the same class as William M. Evarts. He was also a law graduate of Harvard.

Before the war he represented his district in Louisiana in Congress for several terms. When the war broke out he cast his fortunes with the south, and represented his state in the Confederate Congress. Upon the close of the war he went to Mexico, and was with Emperor Maximilian, upon the death of whom he went to Europe and traveled extensively. A price was set upon his head by the United States.

He returned to this country in 1868. His widow is a daughter of the late Judge May of Petersburg, Va. It is related of Mr. Kirkins that in the war, while he planted cotton in the South, he was captured by Federal troops, was set fire to his home and also $900 bags of cotton, rather than see them fall into the hands of the enemy.

MR. BAYARD'S BOY.

The Secretary Cares His Off-Teaching School—Engaged—The Results.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—A Washington paper says that a society paper there recently published a portrait of James Bayard, eldest son of the secretary of state, to Miss Deering, of Fort Pendleton, W. Va. The paper says that after young Bayard's arrest with Butler Mahone and one or two other senators' sons in Washington some time ago, his father was greatly worried and cast off him.

The young man went to West Virginia and taught school. Here he met Miss Deering and became engaged to her. Said Davis: "West Virginia, before meeting Bayard, was destined to be the home of his father the senator and others used their influence to get the young man a post as secretary of state." The publication of this statement at this time is regarded as an indication that young Bayard will not go west unless he can take Miss Deering with him as his wife. The paper adds that it is understood that the secretary still refuses to receive his son.

FRY ON GRANT.

The Article in the North American Review—Herman.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 2.—Gen. Fry's article on Gen. Grant in the last number of the North American Review contains the following: "Grant goes so far as to have done with him. Gen. Grant, dead at 70, C. P. Smith lived Grant would have disappeared to history after Donelson" but that is conjecture.

Gen. Sherman, in answer, wrote the following on the bottom of a copy of the Review:

"I don't know what Gen. Fry refers to. If C. P. Smith was in good health he would have commanded at Shiloh, and his story would have been different."

"W. T. S."

"That," he said, as he showed the magazine along the table, "is all that I am willing to say about the matter."

"Do you mean your conversation with Gen. Fry in regard to Grant in which you might have made such an expression?"

"I don't remember of any. I don't think I ever did."

AB-Awful Dead.

CHATTANOOGA, Dec. 2.—A villainous attempt was made to burn the colored orphan's home, the home turned to the ground ten days ago from a defective pipe, and the sixty orphans were removed to a school house building in the heart of the city and the orphanage was closed. John C. L. Moore, who was preparing to retire the building was discovered to be on fire, and had the discovery been delayed a few moments a dreadful holocaust would have resulted. The entire building had been gutted, and could not be put up again. Pillars of timber were placed near the doors. It is thought that some fallen woman whose child had been taken from her was the author of the attempt.

Again Postponed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The case of Joseph T. Holland, the Texan, who is charged with having killed Tom Davis, the sawdust operator, was again postponed.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

Quotations of the Stock, Produce and Capital Market, Dec. 1.

New York—Money, 2½ per cent. Exchange quiet. Government, 12½ per cent.

Currency, 12½; gold, four, coupons, 12½; gold bullion, and half, 1½; gold.

Stock—Market, 100; railroads, 100; and loans, 100; the first hour, on the plan of some supporting orders of the bull market, there was a fractions advance. About 1½ o'clock, however, the market began to decline, and steadily continued up to noon. Under this setting the whole ast-went-and declined 14 to 24 per cent. Since midday there has been a recovery, but the tour o' the market is reversed.

Bull & Quincey... 12½ Morris'... 11½

Canada Southern... 12½ N. Y. & Erie... 12½

Central Pacific... 12½ N. & W. 12½

C. G. C. & I.... 6½ Northern Pac. 12½

D. L. & W. 12½ as preserved... 12½

Denver & C. G. 12½ Ohio & Mich. 12½

Ind. & Pac. 12½ Rock Island... 12½

East Tennessee... 12½ St. L. & S. 12½

East Central... 12½ St. P. & S. 12½

Kansas & Texas... 12½ as preserved... 12½

Texas & New Orleans... 12½ Louisiana & Nash... 12½ U. Pacific... 12½

Miss. Central... 12½ Western Union... 12½

BACON—Shoulders, 8½¢; short clear sides, 6½¢.

BAKED—Kettle, 6½¢; 9½¢.

DAIRIES—Prim to choice Ohia, 9½¢; 10¢.

New York—1½ lb. No. 1, 10¢; No. 2, 9½¢;

No. 3, 9½¢; No. 4, 8½¢.

DAIRIES—No. 2, regular, 9½¢; No. 3, mixed, 9½¢; No. 4, regular, 8½¢.

DAIRIES—Prim to choice Ohia, 9½¢; 10¢.

FORK—Fiddle, 9½¢; regular, 10¢.

FOODS—Fruit, 10¢; 12½¢.

FRUIT—Fruit, 10¢; 12½¢.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1845.

THE DAILY EVENING BULLETIN will be served by carriers to subscribers in the city at 6 cents a week, or $3.00 a year; to any address in the United States for 50 cents a month, $6.00 for three months, $1.75 for six months, or $3.00 per year, variably in advance. Unless the subscription, as above, is paid in advance, 50 cents per month or $3.00 per year will be charged.

Correspondence containing important news solicited from every part of the country.

Address all Letters and Telegrams to

ROSSER & McCARTHY,

Publishers and Proprietors.

RIVER NEWS.

DUE TO.

Telegraph—Cincinnati to Pomeroy..... 1 a.m.
Boone—Quincy to Charlestown..... 1 a.m.

DUE DOWN.

Bonanza—Pittsburgh to Cincinnati..... 6 p.m.
Cass—Muscatine—Fayette—Clinton—Muscatine—
Benton—Pomeroy to Cincinnati..... 1 a.m.

The Hande No. 2 is due from Bonanza Mills, Enquirer from Washington C. H., or the 30th ultimo, says—"The Columbus and Marietta Narrow-Gauge project is in the talk in railroad circles here now.
The Eastern syndicate having charge of the market is composed of men who will undoubtedly make the enterprise a success."

The Talk in Railroad Circles.

No doubt there are some people in this city who imagine there is but little hope, of the Columbus and Marietta railroad ever being built. Slow as it may be, however, additional information is coming to light every day, which tends to show that there are excellent reasons for believing that the above named road will be built at an early day. It seems to be only a question of time, now, with the company that is backing the enterprise. The point that ought to interest the citizens of this place and Aberdeen is the terminus of the road. Can they afford to let the road terminate at Ripley? It would be a good thing, no doubt, for that place, but not a very nice thing for our own city to allow such to be case. A special to the Cincinnati Enquirer was written yesterday, asking for return trip at 1 p.m., arriving at Portsmouth in time to connect with the Scioto Valley line, and thence to Cincinnati. The road from Charlestown, W. Va., and Richmond, Va., close connections with the Continental Line for the East.

The St. Lawrence is due from Cincinnati during the forenoon of the 1st inst., and leaves return trip at 11:30 a.m.

The Hattie Brown is due from this place today
(Wednesday) at 8 a.m., and 3 p.m.

The Katie Prater makes two trips daily (except Sunday) between this place and Manchester. She is here at 8 a.m. and 3 p.m., and leaves on return trip at 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

River falling at this point.

Olio falling at Pittsburgh with six feet in channel.

Kanawha four feet six inches and falling at Charleston.

WANTED—5,000 bushels of corn at the Marietta Coal and Salt Elevators, n.301w

Mr. C. M. Browning has removed his office to the room on Court street over
Mr. Hubbard's tailor shop.

The receipts of the Government for the month that has just closed were very light and the expenditures unusually heavy.

This entertainment at the opera house last night by Baird's Minstrels attracted a large audience. The performance was a good one throughout.

PLEASE call and settle your account at Ballerenger's, and for every dollar paid you will get a ticket on the diamond ring and stud. See advertisement in another column. n.261d5

After a thorough trial of Tongaline, I add my testimony to its great efficacy as a remedy in rheumatism and neuralgia, and can heartily recommend it in the above diseases. A. H. Moss, M. D., Lake Charles, La.

Attempt to Commit Suicide.

Mr. K.—tried to cut his throat, and nearly succeeded, leaving a gash which the doctor sewed up. He was led to this act by despondency. Despondency came on as the result of chronic dyspepsia and debility. This poor fellow's trouble might have been spared had he made timely use of Brown's Iron Bitters, which by invigorating his blood and rooting out his dyspepsia would have made him healthy and cheerful. Mr. W. C.
Willott, Portland, Me., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is an excellent remedy for nervous complaints."

The Meeting.

It speaks well for the religious interest of Mayville that the entertainment at the open house last night did not affect the congregation at the protracted meeting. The Court House was filled long before the hour for preaching and the great audience listened with deepest interest to the earnest, tender sermon to young ladies. To-night Mr. Hale will preach at the Court House on the subject of "Principle and its Conflicts; or my Experience in Coming from the Episcopal to the Baptist Church." Mr.
Hale begins this afternoon at the 3 o'clock services a series of sermons on "Heaven."
Let everybody come who can.

Death of Berrie Berger.

Bernie Berger, a member of the famous Berger family, died at Thomasville, Ga., last week. He was with the "Swiss Bell Ringers" when they were here a few years ago, and made a number of acquaintances, who will hear the news of his death with sadness. The Evening Courier, of Jackson, Mich., in speaking of him says: "He was the youngest son of Mrs. Anna Berger, of this city, and a well-known member of the celebrated Berger family. He was recently taken South by his brother-in-law, Lloyd Breese, in hopes that a change of air and climate would be beneficial, but the seeds of that self-destructive disease, consumption, were too firmly planted to ever regain his health. He was attended in his last moments by his mother and sister-in-law, Mrs. Fred. G. Berger.

Bernie Berger's friends count by the thousands, and in every State in the Union he was well known, and his death in his young manhood will touch the hearts of people who knew him for his rare social qualities and upright, honorable business association."

The next meeting at the Christian Church, closed
last Wednesday night, after two hours' additional services, will be held on Saturday evening,
two thirds of them being young men, and Little Ma'g Wilson Jackson who has been quite ill is about again.

Mrs. Wm. Cole who has been poorly for so long a time, is recovering, but still has little hope of her recovery.

Elder Wardman of the Baptist Church
is continuing his services here.

Miss Anna Weston, a lady of many charms who has been the guest of Miss Jenny
Evans at the Hopper House left for home

The Rev. Mr. Spears, late of Texas has been here, and is engaged upon his work has done.

Our means are well supplied now with the means of all kinds.

Ed. Myall and his sister, Miss Katie, who have been spending some time here among their relatives, were here yesterday for their home at Hutchinson's station.

J. B. Lindsey one of the finest dental surgeons in the country died last Monday.

Mrs. Mary Groves who has been quite ill for some time is recovering somewhat. She is nearly eight years of age.

Mr. John T. Wilson who has been in Cincinnati for some weeks returned home last Sunday.

Miss Jenny Evans went to Flemingsburg
last Sunday to attend the funeral of William H. Jr. Cr. J.

Revenue Collections.

General James F. Robinson, Internal Revenue Collector for this district, made the following collections for this district for the month ending November 30th:

On lists.....	$ 2,540.70
On beer.....	225.00
On spirits.....	158,880.90
On export spirits.....	1,000.00
On special taxes.....	709.12
Total.....	$161,235.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate $1,000,533.17.

Deputy Collector Robert L. Baldwin
reports the following collections for the
past month at this place:

Cigars.....	$ 725.70
Tobacco.....	15.50
Tax paid on spirits.....	5,495.00

Total..... $1,489.75

General Robinson's collections since he
entered the office on June 8th last, aggregate
$1,000,533.17.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MARYLICK.

The next meeting at the Christian Church, closed
last Wednesday night, after two hours' additional services, will be held on Saturday evening,
two thirds of them being young men, and one third being young women.

Little Ma'g Wilson Jackson who has been
quite ill is about again.

Mrs. Wm. Cole who has been poorly for so long a time, is recovering, but still has little hope of her recovery.

Elder Wardman of the Baptist Church
is continuing his services here.

Miss Anna Weston, a lady of many
charms who has been the guest of Miss Jenny
Evans at the Hopper House left for home last Saturday.

A Card.

MARYVILLE, December 1, 1855.

EDWARD BROWN, Esq.

Dear Sirs:

Please publish in the columns of your paper,

the following notice:

Wanted—A Card.

Yours, etc.,

EDWARD BROWN.

Dear Sirs:

Please publish in the columns of your paper,

the following notice:

Wanted—A Card.

Yours, etc.,

EDWARD BROWN.

Dear Sirs:

Please publish in the columns of your paper,

the following notice:

Wanted—A Card.

Yours, etc.,

EDWARD BROWN.

Dear Sirs:

Please publish in the columns of your paper,

the following notice:

Wanted—A Card.

Yours, etc.,

EDWARD BROWN.

Dear Sirs:

Please publish in the columns of your paper,

the following notice:

Wanted—A Card.

Yours, etc.,

EDWARD BROWN.

Dear Sirs:

Please publish in the columns of your paper,

the following notice:

Wanted—A Card.

Yours, etc.,

EDWARD BROWN.

